The retreat for the children ended on Wednesday morning. The 7th mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Jan, at which seven children of six and seven assisted with piety, the elder ones received Holy Communion. The Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, director of the retreat, recited the rosary, made the preparatory acts during mass, and also the acts of thanksgiving aloud for the privileged ones who had just received the bread of life.

In the evening the worthy preacher recapitulated his previous instructions, answered learnedly questions, handed in, and then gave a controversial sermon on the sacrament of penance, using the texts of the Bible. He refuted in an able manner objections that arise from time to time with regard to the practice of confession and showed its ancient usage.

After the benediction he blessed rosaries, crucifixes and other articles of piety.

LOCAL

Muddy roads.
—A welcome rain.
—Train one and a half hours late.
—T. J. Webel and W. L. Clary have taken over the management of the Dominion Dining Hall.

—A gang of about thirty men commenced work on Namayo avenue this morning excavating for laying water mains.

—A general meeting of the Gun club will be held tomorrow evening, June 5th, at 8:30 p.m., in the Windsor hotel. Matters of importance will be discussed.

—Messrs. Dawson and Shields of Reillys Bros. have purchased the general store business of H. W. McKenney, St. Albert. They took charge on Monday last.

—The remains of superintendent B. F. Egan, of the Great Northern railroad, who was lost in the mountains of Montana in November last, have been found.

—The Edmonton Music Hall has opened up offices in the building next door west of the offices recently erected by W. S. Robertson on Jasper Avenue West.

—The town of Frank will likely be permanently deserted as engineers report that there is more or less risk in living there. Another slide is practically inevitable.

—The C.P.R. land sales for the month of May were not so heavy as those for the corresponding period of 1902. The total area disposed of was 187,416 acres for the sum of $618,337.

—The river has been rapidly rising the past few days and yesterday's rain will help to swell it still more. The high water is likely caused by the melting of snow in the mountains.

—Calgary Herald. —James Lavery was fined this morning ten dollars and costs for calling R. C. Thomas, who was driving one of the teams of a strike, a "scab." This is the first case of the kind that has ever been tried in the local court.

—Farmers coming to town complain greatly about looms per being allowed to lie on Jasper avenue and other main streets. The wind, catching this up, forces it about, badly frightening horses. It is said that a runaway was caused a couple of days ago in this way.

PURE BREED CLYDESDALES FOR EDMONTON DISTRICT

Joe Smith, manager for Alexander Galbraith & Son, of Brandon, Man., and Janesville, Wisconsin, importers of purebred Clydesdale stallions, has sold some fine horses in this vicinity. Last week he sold to a syndicate of Sonny Flett, farmer, the three-year-old stallion Godolphin. It is considered one of the best stallions ever imported and the local farmer, S. O. Lano, is adding agricultural paper, in speaking of it, says that it was the best two-year-old stallion that ever left Scotland. Its pedigree is the very best, its sire being McCreevy and dam, Baron's Pride. On Monday last he sold an excellent purebred Clydesdale stallion, Dunlop, to Messrs. Gray and Neher, of Riviere Qui Parle.

The importation of such valuable stallions will have a very material effect on raising the standard of horses in this district.

A WELCOME RAIN

The past few days have been dry and very warm and when the clouds began to gather in the southwest yesterday a noon everybody wished for rain. About three o'clock rain came and it has proved a godsend to farmers and townspeople generally. The trees needed the rain to bring out the full leaf; the lawns and garden vegetables were alike in need of water and as our waterworks system is not yet in operation, we have to rely to a great extent on rain for this purpose. The abundant sun of the last few days has brought in the growing grain along nicely and the present rain will mean a very great deal to the farmers of this district.

THERE AND HERE

Reports from the scene of the great Mississippi and Missouri floods tell of a most disastrous situation. The Missouri and tributary streams have overflowed their banks, the water spreading far and wide over the lowlands. Vast stretches of thickly settled country have been inundated and great loss of life has been the result. Bridges small and large have gone down before the onslaught of the waters and transportation in the affected districts has been abandoned. Kansas City, which is only one place of many, has been totally cut off from outside communication by raging floods. The following dispatch from Kansas City gives a very vivid idea of conditions there:—"No water to drink, no cook with, or flush closets, no gas, no electric lights, no street cars, etc. Every available horse in use since Saturday and are played out. Elevators, hotels, warehouses, packing houses, are crumbling and going down. No meat to be had except that left on wagons and in show cases Saturday night. Gasoline and coal oil tanks are floating down the river. Thousands of families in flooded districts on the hills wet through. Cold and still raining."

Turning our attention to the Canadian side of the boundary, we find different is the condition of things through that vast tract of fertile country from the Great Lakes to the Rocky mountains. Floods like those to which we have just referred are unknown here. We have rain and lots of it, but it never causes disastrous floods like our friends across the border are used to. Our rivers are influenced by spring freshets but never to the extent of causing loss of life or very great destruction of property. It is true that last year many bridges were washed out and great inconvenience was caused to settlers, but what is this in comparison with what towns and villages being deluged and their inhabitants drowned. Western Canada offers to the intending settler a climate of more equable conditions and her people, in no section, need live in mortal dread of a possible spring deluge which will carry away their all, the proceeds of years of labor.

LEDUC

Rev. John Scott left on Tuesday morning for Manitoba. He intends visiting friends for a few days and then attending Conference in Winnipeg.

A Driscoll, D.L.S., Edmonton, and his men are in Leduc surveying new subdivisions. He has just completed a large block east of the railroad track and south of the lake on the estate of R. T. Telford, into residence lots, and is now surveying on the property of E. Kirkpatrick to the south of the town.

The Leduc boys are getting in about three good practices each week now, and should soon be in shape to play the game.

Messrs. Findlay, Smith, and Porter started Tuesday morning on a trip to the Yellow Head pass by Rocky Mountain House. They will be away about six weeks.

"Who's got the contract?" is a question frequently heard about town these days in reference to several stores and houses started or being figured on.

Messrs. Biggar and Griesbach, of Edmonton, were here Saturday and Monday attending a series of charges preferred against David Kasilutka, of Blackfoot. Mr. Biggar has left behind him in Leduc a favorable impression as a promising lawyer. His questions are few but clear cut and to the point and he commands a winning disposition in court. We wish this young man a future of success.

Constable Ridock who was stationed in Leduc over winter, but recalled to Edmonton this spring, has since been summoned back here so often that he has spent more time in this place than in Edmonton. Why not make Leduc a permanent station?

ST JOACHIM'S CHURCH

The subject of the instruction on Tuesday morning was "Sanctifying Grace its definition, necessity and effects." The reverend preacher in an eloquent manner drew a comparison between the animal, rational and spiritual life of man. He dwelt particularly on the spiritual, or the life of sanctifying grace by which we abide in Christ and He in us. He pointed out the necessity of corresponding with grace, to secure the crowning one of all, that of final perseverance; so that when our toil is over and the grim messenger of death comes, our souls may be transported to the throne of God, to be ravished throughout eternity by the contemplation of the Beatific Vision in the Celestial Paradise, where Saint Paul assures us that eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, nor hath it entered into the heart of man to conceive the glory that awaits him.

At 3.45 p.m. the Rev. Father gave a short instruction to the children, distributed and blessed rosary beads, and assisted by the Rev. Fathers of the mission, heard their confessions.

In the evening the Rev. missionary announced that on the morrow, being the anniversary of the death of our sainted Bishop Grandin, Requiem mass would be at St. Albert, also that his sermon on Wednesday evening would be a controversial one on the sacrament of penance, and on Thursday evening exposition of Catholic doctrine with regard to the blessed Eucharist. Then followed a soul-stirring and eloquent sermon on Scandal and the was pronounced by our Divine Lord on the scandal giver.

Plans and Prices can be seen at the Office on and after the date mentioned.

This is the closest and best property available, and the choicest in and about Edmonton. The furthest part is from 10 to 15 minutes from the post office. The property is eminently the people's portion: is not controlled by a policy of inertia dictated by "Hebraic Hatred." The surveys conform to existing ones, and the streets will be projected to their legitimate confines. Building Sites on the verge of the hill overlooking the mighty Saskatchewan, the foliage and verdure of whose banks is not exceeded by the fiercest tropics or softest Pacific scenes, abound. Prices will be uniform and moderate, tempered as a corrective of the present indefinite craze.

PARTRIDGE HILLS

The opening of the Presbyterian church was the event of the month.

The opening services were held on the 17th. The weather was very cold and disagreeable, but nevertheless the attendance was good. Rev. A. Forbes preached the dedicatory sermon at 11 o'clock a.m. and notwithstanding the early hour many from a distance were present. Rev. Aldridge preached a very interesting sermon at 2:30 p.m. and Mr. McEwen, late of the Presbyterian college, Winnipeg, occupied the pulpit in the evening. On Monday evening a social was held, but the weather was very inclement and the attendance was not good. The church was opened with only forty dollars debt on it, but much must be done before it is finished. It is still unpainted and only temporarily seated, but we hope that what the managers have so well begun they will carry through to completion.

Seeding is about over and the seed has been well put in this year. The ground being in fine shape for sowing. Considerable land has been broken since last spring and the farmers are making commendable progress.

The farmers of this and the neighboring settlements have awakened to the fact that we have not the most desirable horses for farm work and have formed syndicates and purchased two thoroughbred imported stallions, one a Clydesdale weighing 1800 pounds, the other a Percheron, weighing 1600 pounds. They are fine specimens of their different breeds and too much cannot be said in praise of the men who have hereby endeavored to benefit their country. It is high time the country woke to the fact that we cannot afford to raise inferior stock.

W. G. Altou, bridge foreman, leaves with a bridge crew for Vegreville this week.

Mr. Ingils of Olds is visiting friends here.

Mr. S. Pearce is back from his visit to England.

The home of Mr. Robert Altou has been brightened by the arrival of a heir.

BEAVER HILLS

Beaver Hills was well represented at the social held by Prof. Jones at Fort Saskatchewan on Monday. The Misses Lily Hart, Ada Chisholm and Zella Perry, and Mr. Joe Dore took part in the program and acquitted themselves very creditably.

We are glad to see that Mr. H. Wright who has been rather seriously "under the weather" for more than a week, is getting able to be around again. Mr. Wright is further improving his property by putting up a neat addition to his house.

Some immigrants are coming our way. Mr. Franklin, from the States, having taken a homestead on the Hills. The weather this week has been good and seeding is practically finished.
